Ridin' the Railroad

An adventure about riding on trains with an emphasis in social studies

Ridin' the Railroad is all about learning while having fun. Each child participates in several activities, songs and dances designed to teach about railroads. During the Ridin' the Railroad Adventure, children explore different aspects of trains, including, what they are used for, the sounds they make, and how fast they can travel. The emphasis of this Adventure is social studies. Children learn about changes in transportation leading up to the invention of the train.

This Adventure includes:

- Train Sounds
- Wooden Train Coloring
- Train Speed Game
- Changes in Travel Game
- Pretend Train Ride
- Train Songs
- Train Dances
- Story Time
